Item Number:

R-6

- I. Recommendation: Adopt Ordinance
- II. Applicant: Norfolk Commonwealth's Attorney's Office
- III. Description
This agenda item is an Ordinance to establish a Federal Forfeiture Asset Fund for Norfolk's pro rata share of Virginia's $2 million equitable share of a criminal asset forfeiture awarded to the State of Virginia Office of the Attorney General. While we don't have an exact amount of Norfolk's pro rata share, we believe it will be approximately $95,000 based on 35 Comp Board paid attorneys out of 739 Comp Board paid attorneys state-wide. A separate Federal Asset Forfeiture Revenue Account must be maintained and funds must be used solely for the purpose of law enforcement in accordance with the Guide to Equitable Sharing for State and Local Law Enforcement Agencies (April 2009).
- IV. Analysis
The Federal Asset Forfeiture Fund will be used to help purchase a new case management system for the Norfolk Commonwealth's Attorney's Office to replace the outdated and unsupported VCAIS system the office currently uses.
- V. Financial Impact
There is no local matching or percentage funding requirement for this Grant.
- VI. Environmental

Equitable Sharing Agreement

This Federal Equitable Sharing Agreement, entered into among (1) the Federal Government, (2) the above-stated law enforcement agency ("Agency"), and (3) the governing body, sets forth the requirements for participation in the federal Equitable Sharing Program and the restrictions upon the use of federally forfeited cash, property, proceeds, and any interest earned thereon, which are equitably shared with participating law enforcement agencies.

By its signatures, the Agency agrees that it will be bound by the statutes and guidelines that regulate shared assets and the following requirements for participation in the federal Equitable Sharing Program. Receipt of the signed Equitable Sharing Agreement and Certification (this "Document") is a prerequisite to receiving any equitably shared cash, property, or proceeds.

1. Submission. This Document must be submitted to aca.submit@usdoj.gov within 60 days of the end of the Agency's fiscal year. This Document must be submitted electronically with the Affidavit/Signature submitted by fax. This will constitute submission to the Department of Justice and the Department of the Treasury.

2. Signatories. This agreement must be signed by the head of the Agency and the head of the governing body. Examples of Agency heads include police chief, sheriff, director, commissioner, superintendent, administrator, chairperson, secretary, city attorney, county attorney, district attorney, prosecuting attorney, state attorney, commonwealth attorney, and attorney general. The governing body's head is the person who allocates funds or approves the budget for the Agency. Examples of governing body heads include city manager, mayor, city council chairperson, county executive, county council chairperson, director, secretary, administrator, commissioner, and governor.

3. Uses. Any shared asset shall be used for law enforcement purposes in accordance with the statutes and guidelines that govern the federal Equitable Sharing Program as set forth in the current edition of the Department of Justice's Guide to Equitable Sharing for State and Local Law Enforcement (Justice Guide), and the Department of the Treasury's Guide to Equitable Sharing for Foreign Countries and Federal, State, and Local Law Enforcement Agencies (Treasury Guide).

4. Transfers. Before the Agency transfers cash, property, or proceeds to other state or local law enforcement agencies, it must first verify with the Department of Justice or the Department of the Treasury, depending on the source of the funds, that the receiving agency is a current and compliant Equitable Sharing Program participant.

5. Internal Controls. The Agency agrees to account separately for federal equitable sharing funds received from the Department of Justice and the Department of the Treasury. Funds from state and local forfeitures and other sources must not be commingled with federal equitable sharing funds. The Agency shall establish a separate revenue account or accounting code for state, local, Department of Justice, and Department of the Treasury forfeiture funds. Interest income generated must be accounted for in the appropriate federal equitable sharing account.

The Agency agrees that such accounting will be subject to the standard accounting requirements and practices employed for other public funds as supplemented by requirements set forth in the current edition of the Justice Guide and the Treasury Guide, including the requirement in the Justice Guide to maintain relevant documents and records for five years.

The misuse or misapplication of shared resources or the supplantation of existing resources with shared assets is prohibited. Failure to comply with any provision of this agreement shall subject the recipient agency to the sanctions stipulated in the current edition of the Justice or Treasury Guides, depending on the source of the funds/property.

6. Audit Report. Audits will be conducted as provided by the Single Audit Act Amendments of 1996 and OMB Circular A-133. The Department of Justice and Department of the Treasury reserve the right to conduct periodic random audits.

Commonwealth's attorneys present Cuccinelli with "Champion of Justice" award

- Prosecutors thank AG and his office for giving $20 million from criminal forfeiture to pay for statewide prosecutor training in perpetuity -

News release from the Virginia Association of Commonwealth's Attorneys:

RICHMOND (October 25, 2013) -- On Friday, October 25, 2013, the Virginia Association of Commonwealth's Attorneys presented its "Champion of Justice" Award to Attorney General Kenneth T. Cuccinelli, II, in recognition of his efforts to secure for Virginia's prosecutors $20 million from the Abbott Labs drug asset forfeiture. A memorandum of understanding has been signed by both the Office of the Attorney General and the Commonwealth's Attorneys' Services Council and currently is awaiting final approval by the United States Treasury Executive Office for Asset Forfeiture (TEOAF).

$18 million of this drug asset forfeiture money will be used to establish an endowment, the interest from which will help fund in perpetuity the mandatory training needs of Virginia's 700+ prosecutors. Currently, the cost of this training is paid by localities or out of the pockets of individual prosecutors.

Attorneys in Virginia are required to attend a minimum of 12 hours of mandatory legal training each year. At current rates of return, the interest on this figure amounts to approximately $500-$700 of training per attorney per year.

The remaining $2 million will go directly on a pro rata basis to the individual offices to pay for some urgent equipment and computer needs.

The "Champion of Justice Award" is given annually to a select group of legislators and other state officials who have worked to enhance the criminal justice system and who have demonstrated support for Virginia's prosecutors. This award was one of six awarded by VACA in 2013, and is intended to recognize the Attorney General's efforts on behalf of the Commonwealth's Attorneys over the past two years. VACA is non-partisan, and this award should not be construed as an endorsement of the Attorney General's campaign for Governor.

Commonwealth's attorneys who were present to make the award:

Don Caldwell, Roanoke City
Joel Branscom, Botetourt County
Erin DeHart, Bland County

Harvey Bryant, City of Virginia Beach
Rusty McGuire, Louisa County
Robert Cunningham, Lancaster County
Mike Doucette, City of Lynchburg, Immediate Past President, VACA and Bob Harris, Executive Director, Commonwealth's Attorneys Services Council
